

Sports

PHOTOS: Puck drops at White Park for annual Black Ice Pond Hockey tournament

Concord's Black Ice Pond Hockey tournament kicked off on Friday despite freezing temperatures and continues through the weekend at White Park. It was originally scheduled for Jan. 27 but was postponed due to warm temps. Warm weather won't be an issue for the 80 teams participating this weekend. NICK STOICO / Monitor staff • Buy this Image

By NICK STOICO
Monitor staff

Friday, February 10, 2017

CONCORD NH

  1  Print  Like 99

PHOTOS: Puck drops at White Park for annual Black Ice Pond Hockey tournament

By NICK STOICO
Monitor staff

Friday, February 10, 2017

The annual Black Ice Pond Hockey tournament began Friday at White Park in Concord. The tournament continues today with the finals on Sunday. Games begin as early as 8 a.m. and run through the evening. More than 80 teams are participating.

The tournament was originally scheduled to begin Jan. 27, but warm temperatures forced organizers to move the event back two weeks.

The weather has cooperated so far this weekend after more than eight inches of snow fell in the city Thursday with more expected Sunday night. Temperatures were ideal for outdoor hockey on Friday with temperatures below freezing throughout the day. The high for Saturday is 26 degrees.