

ANNUAL POND HOCKEY EXTRAVAGANZA

Rink monitors Dunc Walsh, left, and Dave Tillotson, both from the Concord team Cheers Frenchie Unplugged, work the scoreboard at Saturday's Black Ice Pond Hockey Championships at White Park in Concord. Finals will be played today from 8 a.m. to noon. Teams come from the United States and Canada. This year's team traveling the farthest is Miami Whale from Florida. THOMAS ROY/UNION LEADER

Tom O'Gorman, #9 for Concord's Barley House, races onto the ice against Concord's Cheers Frenchie Unplugged during Saturday morning's competition. Below, Noah Dow, 2, of Concord, checks out the action in his Grumpy Miners hockey outfit from Disney's "Snow White."

THOMAS ROY/UNION LEADER

ean
np:
o

10 pm
12 pm

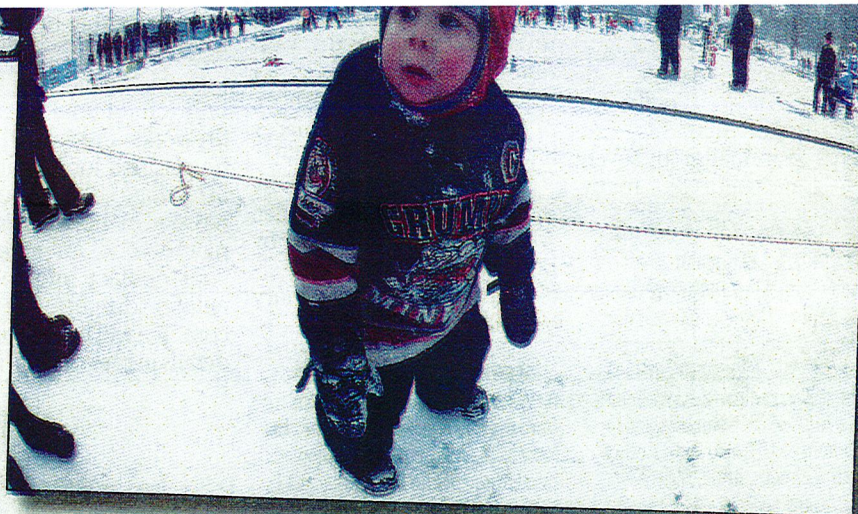

orrow
8 a.m.
10 p.m.
3 a.m.
t Day

New 2/18

3.1"
8.5" 14.2" 25.1" 31.3"

uesday
Lo Wx

Got stick?

Francesca Brown, 5, of Concord seems more interested in a sled ride than the hockey action.

THOMAS ROY/UNION LEADER

Tom Philbrick, right, of Concord, a member of the Concord Budman, shovels snow and ice from the rink as teams ready for another game.

THOMAS ROY/UNION LEADER

Concord's team Indigo Run, above, discusses strategy. At right, team member John Puc takes a break between periods.

THOMAS ROY/UNION LEADER

