CONCORD, NH — Concord's annual Black Ice Pond Hockey Tournament games were canceled Friday due to inclement ice conditions. Saturday's games will be held as normal, with games beginning at 8 p.m. The fireworks display will be held Saturday at 6:15 p.m. Find more information on the tournament's website.

If you're looking for something else to do Friday night, the city's annual Winter Fest celebration is being held downtown. There are ice carving demonstrations on Main Street and an ice bar at O Steaks & Seafood. The festival continues Saturday with more events, including an ice carving competition.
