

Black Ice Pond Hockey Championship postponed due to forecasted warm weather

Warm weather forced tournament to move inside last year

Updated: 1:50 PM EST Jan 18, 2017

Christine DeLong Wheeler ✉

Social Media Producer

CONCORD, N.H. — The 7th Annual Black Ice Pond Hockey Championship has been postponed until February.

The tournament was scheduled to run Jan. 27-29, but organizers said the tournament will now be held Feb. 10-12 because of forecasted warm weather.

RELATED CONTENT

Black Ice Pond Hockey Championship moved indoors due to rain

Black Ice Pond Hockey Championship postponed due to impending warm weather

Warm weather forces Black Ice Pond Hockey Championship to move inside

Lack of ice on Lake Winnepesaukee forces move of pond hockey tournament

Pond hockey tournament moved because of lack of ice

The event is held every year at White Park in Concord, and it features seven different divisions of pond hockey, along with family-friendly fun like ice and snow sculptures, live music, bonfires and fireworks.

The Black Ice Pond Hockey Association is a non-profit that was founded in 2017 to maintain and expand ice skating and recreational opportunities throughout Concord.

This was the second time in seven years that the event had to be rescheduled.

Last year, the tournament was moved inside on the final day due to unseasonably warm temperatures.

The New England Pond Hockey Classic was also moved to a different location in 2016 because of a lack of ice on Lake Winnepesaukee. The event was held at Lake Waukegan in Meredith instead.